

Southern half of Watercare's Central Interceptor tunnel goes live

Approximate location of Hiwa-i-te-Rangi Tunnel Boring Machine

Central Interceptor tunnel is live from this point. Wastewater flows head south to be treated at Māngere Wastewater Treatment Plant.

Gates have been lifted, to allow wastewater flows from existing networks to enter the Central Interceptor tunnel

Gates have been lifted, to allow wastewater flows from existing networks to enter the Central Interceptor tunnel

Gates have been lifted, to allow wastewater flows from existing networks to enter the Central Interceptor tunnel

Major new Pump Station constructed to send tunnel flows to the treatment plant for processing